PRESIDENT TO USE AIRPLANE ON TRIP WEST

Plans Announced for Chief Executive to Fly to San Francisco to Address Conference

TO WITNESS SIGNING

Washington, May 24.—(P)—President Truman will fly to San Francisco to address the concluding session of the United Nations conference.

The White House said today the chief executive also had under consideration a side trip to the Pacific northwest for a few days' rest and recreation after the conference engagement and would also return to the White House by plane.

His absence from Washington, however, probably will be for less than a week.

Charles G. Ross, press secretary, said the president would arrive in San Francisco a few hours before the time for his speech to the plenary session in the San Francisco opera house, which seats 3,500 persons.

Mr. Truman plans to witness the signing of the world security charter, then speak for about 15 minutes. The address will be carried over a world-wide radio hookup.

He will leave San Francisco shortly after attending a reception to meet the conference delegates.

San Francisco, May 24.—(P)—The United States sought by firm and friendly negotiations to exist to prove that a foundation exists in the ruins of post-war Europe for an effective United Nations organization around the world.

That is the real significance seen by delegates at the United Nations conference in President Truman's dispatch of Harry Hopkins to Premier Stalin's Kremlin office.

These international experts from every quarter of the globe are emphasizing anew that if the great victorious nations of the war against Germany move hesitantly now to settle the first issues of peace, the world charter being drawn up here may not be worth its paper.

Topping all these issues in gravity at the moment is the question of providing a more democratic government for Poland in accordance with the Yalta agreement. The prevailing belief here is that Hopkins' main assignment is to get in direct conversation with Stalin some way out of the deadlock between Russian and her western Allies.

Hike In Gas Rationing To Be Nationwide

Washington, May 24.—(P)—Uncle Sam gave the signal today for more gasoline for the nation's motorists.

Relieved of the task of pouring thousands of barrels daily to European battlefronts, the government announced a 50 per cent increase in basic "A" rations, effective June 22, and a substantial boost for many "B" drivers beginning June 11.

This means that the new A-16 coupons will be good for six gallons each instead of four. Motorists thus will be able to obtain an average of three gallons a week rather than two.

The change in the "B" ration increases the ceiling for supplementary gasoline to 650 miles a month throughout the country. Currently the top allowance is 325 miles in the east, 475 in the midwest and 400 in the far west.

As for "A" coupons, they will continue to become valid in series of six and will be good three months as at present. The only difference is they will be honored for 50 per cent more gasoline.

The new adjustment of allotments marks the first time since the start of gasoline rationing in 1942 that the entire country has been on an equal footing in both "A" and potential "B".

Strike In Chicago Ends After Seizure

Chicago, May 24.—(P)—Chicago's 6,500 week-long truck drivers, whose week-long strike partially paralyzed movement of war goods and food in the midwest, began a mass return to work today with the federal government acting as their boss.

The strikers, members of the Independent Chicago Truck Drivers Union, called off their strike last night, shortly after President Truman authorized the Office of Defense Transportation to seize the trucking concerns.

The ODT seizure was effective at 12:01 a. m. Central War Time today. However, some trucks, with regular drivers at the wheels, with regular rolling with delayed shipments last night. Others resumed operations early today and there was no reported physical taking over of the properties by federal troops, who had been sent to the city presumably for that purpose.

Truman's Four-Way Cabinet Reshuffle Gives West More Prestige and Subtracted Age

Washington, May 24.—(P)—President Truman stood pat today on a four-way cabinet shuffle that gave the west added prestige and subtracted age.

Mr. Truman named new secretaries of agriculture and labor and a new attorney general late yesterday as a follow-up to his earlier designation of Robert E. Hannegan, 41, to replace 59-year-old Postmaster General Frank C. Walker.

There were indications that no further shifts in the 10-member presidential family are imminent.

Political observers viewed the selections as retaining a somewhat liberal tinge to the cabinet, although both so-called "conservative" and pro-Roosevelt factions in Texas were reported pleased with the promotion of Tom C. Clark, of Dallas, 45-year-old assistant attorney general to succeed Francis Biddle, 59.

The shuffling removed this country's first woman cabinet member, Miss Frances Perkins, 63, who has been in her post more than 12 years. In her place Mr. Truman put Federal Judge Lewis B. Schwelb, of Washington state, 50-year-old former senator and close friend of the president.

Rep. Clinton P. Anderson, 49-year-old New Mexican who heads the special house food investigating committee and who, like Schwelb, supported most Roosevelt proposals, was named secretary of agriculture in place of Claude Wickard, 52. The latter was design rural electrification administrator.

Anderson also will take over the duties of the War Food Administration as soon as Marvin Jones returns to the U. S. court of claims beat on June 30. Jones suggested the merger.

Noting the geographical background of the four new cabinet members—all from west of the Mississippi—Senator Johnson (D-Colo.) observed to newsmen:

"The government is moving off the Hudson river—it's been there a long time."

Congressional comment on yesterday's appointments was uniformly favorable.

Mr. Truman startled the 178 newsmen attending his news conference yesterday when he announced calmly that he had some cabinet changes to report. They had been looking only for the acceptance of the Biddle resignation.

Almost a Million Casualties Listed

Washington, May 24.—(P)—The army and navy have suffered almost a million casualties since the beginning of the war, the two services reported today.

The army has lost 886,525, on a basis of individual names received here through May 14. Navy losses of 109,564 make the total 996,089.

This is an increase of 9,875 above last week's report.

The breakdown on army casualties and corresponding figures for the preceding week:

Killed 181,739 and 178,854; wounded 550,506 and 544,249; missing 57,802 and 66,684; prisoners 96,478 and 89,152.

Under Secretary of War Patterson said that 302,910 of the wounded have returned to duty and 25,856 of the prisoners have been officially listed as exchanged or returned to military control.

Killed 42,807 and 41,986; wounded 52,005 and 50,421; missing 10,505 and 10,620; prisoners 4,247 and 4,248.

World Bank Plan Is Given Approval

Washington, May 24.—(P)—The house banking committee by a 23 to 3 vote today approved the Bretton Woods agreements for a world bank and international monetary stabilization fund.

It was the second committee triumph within a week for the administration's international economic program accompanying political arrangements being worked out at San Francisco.

The house ways and means committee last week approved 14 to 11 the proposal to give the president broad new powers to reduce tariffs in reciprocal trade agreements with other nations.

"They do not take the place of the Big Three conference which definitely is in the works," Ross told his news conference. "They are not a substitute for the projected meeting of President Truman, Prime Minister Churchill and Premier Stalin."

Churchill Is Busy Forming New Cabinet

By EDWARD J. DENNEHY

London, May 24.—(P)—Prime Minister Churchill began today the task of choosing the members of his new "caretaker government", as sections of the London press saluted the now dissolved coalition which under his leadership piloted Britain through five perilous years.

With labor and liberal ministers leaving the cabinet, the independent Daily Mail predicted that "several junior ministers who have done good work during the war will be promoted to cabinet rank and posts will be found for those on war service."

Deputy Prime Minister Clement Attlee, Minister of Labor Ernest Bevin, Home Secretary Herbert Morrison and other leaders, now at a labor party conference at Blackpool, were expected to hand over their seals of office to the king by Monday.

The heavily Conservative parliament will continue to sit until dissolved by proclamation of the king on June 15. The national vote will be on July 5, and political writers expressed belief a new parliament would meet for the first time July 31 or Aug. 7.

Five Transports Bring 7,000 Boys

New York, May 24.—(P)—Swing music, played by an army band on a pier, blared over the North river today to greet 7,000 army personnel who returned from Europe's battlefields aboard five camouflaged transports.

Debarbed were 3,937 wounded; 910 reassignment troops, 397 rotational troops and 295 liberated prisoners of war. In addition the ships carried 300 military hospital service troops, 557 ground crew and service men of the 453rd heavy bombardment group of the eighth air force and 697 British rotational troops.

The wounded men were taken by ambulance to Camp Shanks, N. Y., Halloran General Hospital on Staten Island and Mason General Hospital at Brentwood, N. Y. The liberated Americans were sent to Fort Hamilton, Brooklyn, and the remainder of the troops left for Camp Kilmer, N. J.

WAR DADS ORGANIZE

Greensburg, May 24.—(P)—The state organization of American War Dads last night elected Clinton J. Newhard, Uniontown, as its president. The group is composed of fathers with sons in the Armed Forces. Other officers are Alec Reinheimer, Philadelphia, vice president; R. B. Steiner, Canonsburg, secretary; W. Karl Robbins, Masontown, treasurer; Joseph Snyder, Carmichael, sergeant-at-arms; Charles Snyder, Allentown, and Adelbert Sheldon, Canonsburg, chaplains.

The screening will sift out the war criminals and those Nazis who will be headed for labor in war-ravaged countries — reparations in the form of work.

The only Germans left in any authority in the Reich were those municipal officials appointed by the Allies, and a few underlings of the Flensburg government, kept on the job under Allied supervision to straighten out and turn over essential records.

Probably at no time in history has a nation been so completely and so efficiently destroyed. Not even the Germans ever took over any country so completely in so short a time.

Most of this has been accomplished by the Allied supreme command under Gen. Eisenhower, which has been handicapped by the lack of any single fixed policy for all Allied governments.

The removal of Germany's policy makers by arrest now means that the only difference between the American and the British zones of occupation will be the extent to which Germans are used for administration. Administration by Germans under American control may be only on a city official level, while in a British zone it might be set at a kreis, or county, level.

Himmler Reported To Have Committed Suicide At 2nd British Army Headquarters

BULLETIN

London, May 24.—(P)—Heinrich Himmler killed himself with poison last night, three days after his capture by the Allies, the Exchange Telegraph Agency reported today. Reuters also announced the suicide. The Exchange Telegraph Agency, in a dispatch from Terence Duncan with the British Second Army, said the 44-year-old Gestapo chief had been arrested three days ago, incognito and was held captive in a house in Lüneburg. The agency's report said Himmler took his life by drinking the contents of a hidden vial. Reuters said the death was announced officially tonight at British Second Army headquarters.

By WES GALLAGHER

Paris, May 24.—(P)—Germany entered an era of atonement today as the dissolution of the last vestiges of her government marked the end of the phase of disarmament through which she has been passing.

Germany has ceased to exist as a nation. She has no boundaries except as defined by the Allies. She is not united, because of the zones cut through the heart of the Reich marking off the various occupying armies. She has no political life, no economic life except as dictated by the Allies, and no social life.

Expressed fears that the Allies might install a puppet government from the remnants of Admiral Karl Doenitz' regime faded as the entire government and high command headed for prison camps. American and British military authorities had used the German high command to accomplish the Allied end of disarming the German army—and then wiped out that high command with a single stroke.

Almost simultaneously came Gen. Eisenhower's order that German prisoners be screened and those over age and not war criminals be returned to Germany to work.

This screening will sift out the war criminals and those Nazis who will be headed for labor in war-ravaged countries — reparations in the form of work.

The only Germans left in any authority in the Reich were those municipal officials appointed by the Allies, and a few underlings of the Flensburg government, kept on the job under Allied supervision to straighten out and turn over essential records.

TOKYO ABLAZE AFTER VISIT OF 550 FORTS

Biggest Single Aid Blow of Pacific War Spreads Fire In Nip Capital Visible For 200 Miles

RAIL YARDS SMASHED

By LEIF ERICKSON

Guam, May 24.—(P)—Tokyo burned for five and one-half hours, by Japanese admission, today after more than 550 Superforts plastered the city's war factories and facilities with 9,000,000 pounds of fire bombs in the mightiest single air blow of the Pacific war.

An imperial headquarters communique broadcast from Tokyo said "almost all fires" were out by "about 7 a. m." (6 p. m. Wednesday, EWT). The raid started shortly after midnight.

The Japanese radio reported property within the imperial palace compound was hit, but tried to minimize the size of the raiding force and discount the damage generally. American airmen returning to their base in the Marianas, however, said fires were visible for 200 miles from the city and undoubtedly the Yank bombs "burned hell out of the place."

Another enemy broadcast said "about 180" American carrier planes raided airbases on Kyushu, southernmost Japanese home island, in another of the off-repeated attacks to disable fields mounting Nipponese suicide plane attacks against American positions on Okinawa. This report was not confirmed by U. S. authorities.

One B-29 pilot Maj. Luther A. Jones, of Monroe, La., reporting direct hits on yards which handle one third of Japan's rail traffic, said on his return from the pre-dawn strike:

"I'm afraid they're going to do a hell of a lot of walking."

A brilliant moon and a ring of oil fires set by lead planes illuminated the target area, the Shinagawa industrial section, which is populated by 750,000 of Tokyo's millions and crowded with highly inflammable shops making precision instruments for Nippon's air force.

Pilots saw their incendiaries spread huge fires. Flashes indicated the flames had spread to stores of explosive materials.

Brig. Gen. Thomas S. Powers, commanding general of the Superforts on Guam, received reports that high winds spread the fires over a widening area.

Staff Sgt. Max Sampson, of Bellefonte, Pa., gunner on a plane piloted by Lt. Carroll H. Payne of San Antonio, Tex., said:

"I don't think there is any doubt about it. They burned hell out of the place."

The raiders had the rare experience of finding the target without a covering cloud.

A Japanese communique ignored industrial damage but charged that an arbor in the imperial palace garden, three miles north of the designated target area, was attacked and "an establishment within the compounds of the Akasaka detached palace" was burned.

Force of 5,000 To Hunt Tax Evaders

Washington, May 24.—(P)—Secretary Morgenthau is asking the budget bureau and congress for funds to recruit an additional 5,000 treasury field agents "at once" in a fast-mounting investigation of tax evasion.

There now are 1,500 agents at work.

Morgenthau said "we are running into so many shocking cases. It is shocking, revolting, and disgusting that anybody who has got a fine business in wartime should try to make these illegal profits by evading their taxes."

He told his news conference that a man operating restaurants in New York City has come forward through his tax lawyer and made a "voluntary disclosure" of $2,200,000 in gross income over a three-year period that was "overlooked" in filing returns.

Girl Is Charged With Babe's Death

Greensburg, May 24.—(P)—A 21-year-old mother accused of burying her new-born baby in a manure pile was charged with the infant's murder in an information filed before Alderman Paul L. Thomas today.

State Police Detective Lio R. Miller, who filed the information, said the mother, Emma Fabry, of West Leechburg, choked the baby after the birth at her home on Monday.

A doctor found the baby and took it to a Tarentum hospital, where it died several hours later.

The warmth of the manure kept the baby alive, but death was eventually caused by "asphyxiation due to strangulation", Coroner's Physician J. W. McMeans reported.

Pincers on Key Bastion of Shuri Closing Rapidly

Fierce Close-In Fighting Rages Across the Entire Front As Doughboys and Leathernecks Increase Pressure Entering Naha

BATTLE CONTINUES UNABATED IN CENTER LINE

By HAMILTON FARON

Guam, May 24.—(P)—Leathernecks and Doughboys of the 10th Army held the Japanese key fortress of Shuri in a giant cup-shaped pincers today as they turned both ends of the Okinawa battle line.

Fierce close-in fighting raged across the entire front as the Yanks increased their pressure, entering Naha on the western flank and expanding gains made at the Yonabaru breakthrough on the east.

In the center, the battle continued unabated as the 77th (Status of Liberty) Division pressed forward toward the hill line overlooking Shuri. There, a unit assaulting the hills was caught in a murderous cross-fire from Japanese cave positions and pinned down.

Just to the left of the 77th, a battalion of the 96th threw back a fierce Japanese counterattack which penetrated American lines more than a third of a mile before it was stopped with a loss of between 150 and 200 Japanese.

Seventh Division troops expanded their corridor below Yonabaru, increasing the pressure against Shuri on the left and at the same time heightening the threat of complete isolation for Japanese garrisons in the hills of Chinen peninsula commanding Nakagusuku bay, former Japanese fleet anchorage.

The east-west supply lines to the Chinen forces already have been cut.

With mechanized equipment mired in the rear, gains were made on a foot-slogging, slug-it-out basis, but patrols reaching high ground west of Yonabaru reported good tank country beyond.

Patrols of the Sixth Division's Fourth Marine regiment spearheaded the drive into Naha, rubble strewn Okinawa capital yesterday, wading the muddy, silt-filled Asato river in a surprise, pre-dawn strike from the northeast.

The initial drive carried as deep as 800 yards into the city, but the tough former Marine raiders and paratroopers who make up the Fourth expect fierce house-to-house fighting as they move through the bombardment-smashed city.

They are likely to encounter fighting as they move toward the bombardment-wrecked suburbs after fording the muddy Asato river.

With Naha entered in force, both of Okinawa's main cities and terminals of the Naha-Shuri-Yonabaru defense line have been penetrated. Yonabaru, on the east, with its nearby airstrip, fell to the 96th Infantry Division Tuesday while the 7th made a quick encircling movement by nightfall, isolating it from possible Japanese reinforcement.

Seventh War Bond Has Double Power

Washington, May 24.—(P)—Here is a war bond statement from Vice Admiral Alan G. Kirk, commander, U. S. Naval Forces, France.

"A War Bond has a double power. To buy another bond is to strike another blow at the enemy war machine today and drive another rivet in the rising structure of America tomorrow. Present success and future security demand a response from us all."

Morgue officials said draft registration and social security cards gave the man's name as Henry Samuel Burgess, of Pittsburgh, and Washington, D. C.

Flashing guns, the two robbers cowed employees and workmen. As the first bandit fled, Patrolmen Michael Walsh, 60, and Stephen Raydack, 41, dashed into the bar.

The officers said Burgess fired two shots, but was killed in the return fire.

Number of Area Soldiers Are Freed From Prison Camps

News that Lt. Mones Hawley and Cpl. George Jackson have been added to the list of service men freed from German prisoner of war camps has just been received by their families and word of several others is contained in official releases of the Office of War Information.

E. E. Hawley, 225 Watson Place, has received a V-Mail letter from Mones, written May 15 from a point believed to have been England. In it he reveals he was released May 1 by the "Heroes Division" of the Second Ukrainian Army and was "down out" on the 13th. He also states he has had no mail from home in some time, the last communication from a member of the family informing him his father was ill in the hospital.

The word concerning Cpl. Jackson's release has come through a Red Cross telegram to his wife, June Jackson, 608 Prospect street, and his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Jackson, 212 Canton street.

He had been held prisoner since December 18, 1944, when he was taken in the battle of the bulge in Belgium.

PROGRESS IN PHILIPPINES IS RETARDED

Yard By Yard Cleanup Fight Being Waged Against Japs As Aussies Hunt Nips On Tarakan Island

MUD AND RAIN HINDER

By FRED HAMPSON

Manila, May 24.—(P)—The yard by yard cleanup fight against Japanese in the Philippines made slow progress on seven fronts Wednesday while Sixth Division Aussies hunted down Nips on north Borneo's Tarakan island. Far to the rear, Aussies locked with Japanese in sporadic fights around Wewak, British New Guinea, and along the Buin trail on South Bougainville, in the Solomons.

Some of these campaigns are almost two years old. Some Philippine battles represent continuation of a campaign now nearing six months old.

On Luzon's northern fronts at Baguio far north of Manila and in Balete Pass to the northeast, mud and rain as well as tenacious Nipponese confronted Doughboys. Some of the Yanks have been in action for nearly 130 consecutive days.

Young Thief Shot Down By Officers

Pittsburgh, May 24.—(P)—A young thief who stayed behind to collect the silver after his companion fled with the paper money lay in the morgue today.

He was shot and killed last night by policemen who a passer-by summoned to a cafe on Liberty avenue.

Morgue officials said draft registration and social security cards gave the man's name as Henry Samuel Burgess, of Pittsburgh, and Washington, D. C.

Flashing guns, the two robbers cowed employees and workmen. As the first bandit fled, Patrolmen Michael Walsh, 60, and Stephen Raydack, 41, dashed into the bar.

Corry Restaurants Protest OPA Rationing; Close Places

Corry visitors today faced a critical condition there when every eating house in the city with the exception of the Ritz restaurant closed for an indefinite period in protest to the OPA's rationing plans. The meat shortage and strict rationing has worked havoc with their business the owners of the eating places claim. The places closed this morning at 10 o'clock.

The Ritz Restaurant reported that an adequate supply of meat or their use would be on hand from a Chicago packer and there was no need for them to close.

The closings followed a meeting held yesterday morning at the office of Walter Scott, attorney, at which the proprietors signed papers agreeing to close and stay closed until such time as the proper amount of red points and the amount of meat necessary for restaurant use be forthcoming.

Two OPA agents are in Corry. Messrs. Mulligan and Bennett and it is said they are engaged in a check on alleged violations of regulations concerning the sale of meat in the city and immediate vicinity.

Reports late in the day were to the effect that they had attempted to make a further check on the meat supply of Hotel Corry and had taken similar action at the Phoenix Hotel here. No statement as to the nature of any charges was issued by the protesters. There was also a report current that the two agents had interviewed individuals in the city who had engaged in the sale of dressed cattle. The management of Hotel Corry where an effort has been made to maintain service during the emergency has not yielded to the claims of the investigators and is preparing to contest the action which has been threatened.

Meanwhile the meat supply in the city in all retail outlets continuing non-existent and there was no immediate promise of relief.

Restaurant operators in Warren are also having trouble securing sufficient red points to operate. The Texas Lunch was recently closed for several days. It is held that the OPA is forcing people to leave their homes in order to secure meals and then not giving the restaurants enough red points to care for the increased trade.

There is a growing opinion that the meat rationing plan is a rank failure in its administration and its operation is driving meat out of the market and into the hands of black marketers. Feeling is general that Canada operating without rationing is setting an example that the United States might profitably follow and that the whole rationing system could be dumped in a waste basket with no great interruption of living in the country.

Indiantown, Well Known To Local Soldiers, Will Become Great Center

Indiantown Gap, May 23—Indiantown Gap Military Reservation, an installation indelibly linked with the Army career of thousands of Pennsylvanian soldiers, soon will play a new and important role in the life of GIs from the Commonwealth.

A large personnel center soon will be activated at Indiantown Gap, under the authority of Third Service Command, which is commanded by Major General Philip Hayes. Two of its functions will affect the future of Pennsylvanians new in service and the third will help shape the military careers of new inductees.

Brigadier General Malcolm F. Lindsey is commanding general of Indiantown Gap. He assumed command of the reservation last February. General Lindsey was given the assignment here a short time after returning from the China-Burma-India theater, where he served for three years.

Components of the personnel center will be:

(1)—A reception station which will handle soldiers from a three-state area, including Pennsylvania when they are returned from the combat theaters and given furloughs at home prior to re-assignment.

(2)—A separation center from which soldiers will be discharged and sent back to civilian life.

(3)—A reception center through which men just sworn into service will pass. This function in the past has been handled at New Cumberland.

Indiantown Gap occupies a prominent spot in the Army life of many Pennsylvanians as it was here Pennsylvania's own "Iron Division," the 28th, was trained preparatory to its overseas service.

By virtue of its long and gallant performance in the European theater, the 28th has gained lasting fame as one of the war's finest fighting units.

Col. Hardin C. Sweeney, currently director of training at Indiantown Gap, has been chosen to direct the preliminary work in connection with the personnel center awaiting its formal activation by the War Department.

Col. Sweeney recently returned after 33 months' service in the South Pacific.

Anything Stirring?

Something tells me
it's time for some activity in the kitchen. I have a hollow space in my middle. I feel a bit short-tempered.

I can think only of such things as warm, comforting vegetable soup, tasty green beans and good brown prunes. All these signs can mean but this: it's dinner time, time for Beech-Nut!

In our house, food for me means Beech-Nut. First, because Beech-Nut foods taste good. Second, because Beech-Nut foods retain natural food values in high degree.

Mother always says "Beech-Nut, please," to my friend, the grocery man.

MEN AND WOMEN IN SERVICE

Assignment As "Paper Boy" For Lt. Heard

Lt. Jack Heard, writing his family from overseas on May 11, tells of his present whereabouts and some recent experiences in the following paragraphs:

"I see in Stars and Stripes (army newspaper) we can now tell where we are. I'm near the village of Thurlough (field of same name), about six and one-half miles north of Bedford, Bedfordshire, England. Look it up, about fifty miles north of London.

"Been pretty busy lately, flew five out of the past six days. Boy, they keep all the Mickey operators (that's me) busy. We drop newspapers over German cities and give them all the latest news. Makes me mad, just a glorified paper boy, and especially for the Krauts. We scare them pretty good, chase them all into ditches. I imagine a B-17 about ten feet off the ground would scare anyone.

"I wish you could see some of the German cities, you have no idea how bad they are. Cologne doesn't have a house you could live in, all that is standing are the walls and not many of them. All up and down the rivers all the bridges are blown up and lying in the water. Here's some of the cities I've seen, and from about 100 feet or lower, Hannover, Magdeburg, Cologne, Frankfurt, Coblenz, Strasbourg, Freiburg, Metz (Fr.), also Ludwigshafen and Mannheim and a lot of small towns completely gone. Haven't seen the Ruhr yet, but I will. They have beautiful country over there, their autobahns (super-highways) are the best ones I've ever seen, even at home. Up in Holland the Germans have blown a lot of dykes and large areas of land are under water, just the roof tops showing. Someone shot at us today over Ostende. Someone will pay and dearly, too."

Bronze Star Is Awarded To Pfc. Lindberg

Word has been received here of the award of the Bronze Star Medal to Pfc. Edward M. Lindberg, of Tidouste, son of Ellis Lindberg, Warren RD 3. The Citation accompanying the decoration, given at the same time to Pvt. Clarence J. Beard, of Nason City, Ill., reads as follows:

For valorous conduct in action against the enemy. On August 17, 1944, near . . . France these two men acted as flank security for their squad, which was crossing the knoll of a hill. They encountered a patrol of 20 Germans and, advancing by short rushes into the hail of enemy machine, pistols and rifle fire, using only small rock formations as cover, killed 6 and drove off the remaining enemy, thus preventing what might have been a disastrous surprise to their squad. Signed, John V. O'Daniel, Major General U. S. Army, commanding."

V-E DAY

and our Waiting Lists

We had quite a time of it here at the telephone company on V-E Day . . . a solemn time and a gay time.

We felt like showering telephone service on all those thousands of understanding people in homes and business offices who have been waiting—and waiting—and waiting.

We wanted to rush through the city and the country, digging the miles of ditches, laying the miles of cable, building the hundreds of buildings, and completing the mammoth job of fitting all new and essential central-office equipment into the living mechanism of the telephone system . . . all in a single day.

Then we realized that both solemn gratitude and great rejoicing could lead to wishful thinking, and that the end of Nazi Germany was not the end—not by a Pacific-Oceanful—of our waiting lists.

Let's look at the mathematics on telephone instruments alone. They're only five percent of telephone equipment . . . only one item among the switchboards, the conduits, the cable, the wire, the 101 other things that we must have to end our waiting lists.

1. The waiting lists on V-E Day included 125,000 Pennsylvanians.

2. While we have been receiving telephone instruments at the rate of 2,500 a month, the waiting list is growing at the rate of 5,000 a month.

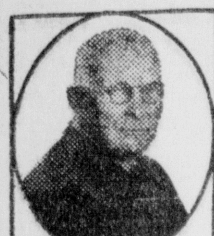

In short, it's not a promising picture.

But it may be, as Japan squirms under the lash of concerted attacks, that we'll do better than we think. We sincerely hope so. We don't like to keep anyone waiting for telephone service.

TAKING STOCK OF OUR SITUATION

The Seventh War Loan campaign is a good time for us to take stock of our situation.

On the brighter side—if it may be said that war indeed has a brighter side—there is the fact that we live in the only great fighting country without broken cities, death, desolation and rampant tragedy in the streets. Our income is the highest in years. Most of use have been pretty good citizens because we have given our blood, bought extra war bonds, worked hard at war jobs.

But on the other hand, war already has dealt many of us its most terrible blow. If we'll but study our neighborhood for a moment, we'll find the heartbreak of war behind the curtain of many a gold-star window.

Now we are asked to buy more and more extra war bonds than ever before.

Can we afford to give in to that tired feeling at this critical stage of the war?

Our bond purchases in the six previous war loans helped destroy Mussolini and Hitler.

Japan now has advanced to the head of the list. Hoisting the Stars and Stripes over Tokyo is going to be a huge task . . . And it's going to take all of the extra war bonds each of us can buy to help our fighting men in this war-winning assignment.

GERMAN PEOPLE TO BLAME

Warren folk who have read and listened to accounts of the Nazi Horror Prisons should ponder carefully the word sent home by Miss Frances Sizer, daughter of the Rev. and Mrs. Henry Sizer, Sr., of Bradford. In Europe with the Red Cross she wrote her parents a letter and this is an extract from it:

"My anger is so great I can hardly hold the pen when I think of it. Some German woman asked me a question when we arrived, and I turned on her and said, 'Don't talk to me, you German! You, and all of you, remember Dachau.' She reddened and left. I have been so polite to the people whose homes we have taken over; but I know now that all of a nation is responsible for such atrocities; all Germans are guilty.

"Now I know why we're here. I never would have believed it, if I had not seen it. May God forgive them, for those of us who have seen it will never forget.

"Maybe I should not have told you all this, but I feel strongly that everyone at home should know about these things."

RETURN OF THE NATIVE

Fritz Kuhn, former fuhrer of the German-American Bund, is being sent back to his native land to view the ultimate fruits of the glories of Hitlerism. He will see the marks of ruin left by the might of a united country whose unity he did his best to destroy.

It seems a pity that Fritz couldn't have been on hand to witness the fireworks that marked the Third Reich's closing days. He always was a great one for spectacles. But at least he's on his way. We hope he has a long and thoroughly unpleasant visit.

Dealers warn that a cut of 200,000,000 packages in military purchases of cigarettes may not mean that civilians will get many more smokes. How come? We can imagine that 200,000,000 jackpot going up in smoke, but we can't see how it can vanish in thin air.

Allied victory is crystalizing with increasing speed in all theatres of the war against Japan, and the perimeter of our attack is steadily contracting about the Mikado's home islands for the kill.

The tin can collection Wednesday, according to the salvage officials, set a record for Warren county. Demonstrates that folks hereabouts realize the war was only half won when Germany surrendered.

Cigaret makers say there'll be more smokes for civilians but we'll still have to stand in line. Now maybe there'll be a pack left when you reach the counter.

More gasoline is coming up—in case your old jalopy is still running.

Oh, well, even if the ground is too damp to cultivate you can generally run the lawn mower.

If you're interested in slow music for Japan, hop aboard the Seventh War Loan Bond Wagon.

T-H-O-U-G-H-T-S

And, behold, there are last which shall be first, and there are first which shall be last.—Luke 13:30.

The ultramarine 40-centavo stamp marks the 100th anniversary of the Pacification of Rio Grande do Sul and pictures the meeting between Caxias and Canabarro in Ponche Verde. The ceremony marked the end of the 10 years Separatist Revolution. Manoel Marques de Souza, then a colonel of cavalry and later the Count of Porto Alegre, and Antonio Vicente de Fountoura, who negotiated the peace, also are pictured. The dates "1845-1945" and the inscription "Pacification of Rio Grande do Sul" appear along the stamp's borders.

Chapter 4
KAY didn't sleep much that night and the next morning she was awake early. She heard a familiar knock and Liza's black face appeared. Liza was not smiling this morning. Her old eyes sought Kay's face with a worried expression.
Liza, Jimmy had once put it, was a big black cornerstone of the Lambert house. She had nursed the baby Francis and, years later, Francis's daughter.
Her small bungalow stood in the woods back of the big house. Her daughter, Anna, was cook for the Lamberts. And Anna was, Liza claimed often and bitterly, a great disappointment to her.
"After I done sent you to Tuskegee to get book-learnin', you done come home and marry that no-count Sam," she'd berate Anna almost daily.
Sam was gardener and chauffeur for the Lamberts, but his main idea in life was to keep in good standing with his mother-in-law.
"Good morning, Miss Kay," she said, and her anxiety was replaced with a wide grin. "Dr. Sims done phoned there's a new baby down at the hospital."
"Hospital," Liza corrected mechanically.
"Yassum," Liza agreed, unperturbed. "You'll be wantin' a silver cup for him, I reckon?"
"Yes, sometime. But not today," Katherine had started the procession of silver cups. One for every baby born in the village since her marriage to Francis. Kay had gone with her often as a child to deliver gifts. Now Kay went alone bearing the cup, and often clothes, and books and toys.
"I'm so unhappy," she told Liza. "Yassum," Liza agreed anxiously. "I knowed that you knowed 'bout Mr. Francis soon as I looked at you. I ain't woke you up every morning for twenty-four years without knowing when you know bad news!"
"You're a mind-reader, Liza." "No'm, I sticks to readin' my cup. That's how I knowed 'bout Mr. Francis marryin' last night." "Yes," Kay exclaimed bitterly. "Everyone knew except me. Why didn't you tell me?"
"Well," Liza evaded, "there ain't nothin' to do with a man when he's set on marryin', 'cept to let him marry. He'll get well." She paused, then added, "And I figured you had time enough to worry when that woman gets here."
Kay lay quite still for a long time. Then she rose wearily, took her bath, and slipped on a simple blue tennis frock and tied a matching blue ribbon about her bright hair.
She moved slowly down the winding stairway, her eyes on the wide rooms with their lofty ceilings. She had a feeling that she was saying a farewell to a familiar pattern of her life when she surveyed the living room.
FRANCIS LAMBERT's automobile was proceeding at a leisurely rate of speed through the mountains of north Georgia. Francis was driving and he glanced often at his beautiful bride. He was tall, and his dark hair was scarcely touched with gray. He held his head with the pride that comes of success and wealth.
Lucia's dark head lay on his shoulder. She seemed to sleep, but did not. She had grown tired of Francis's talk, of his love-making, and she sighed wearily and leaned against him.
"So tired, dearest," she whispered, removing her hat. "Let me rest here. I never dreamed there was such a wonderful feeling in the world."
"Darling!" Francis murmured over her, cradling her head against him.
Lucia was slender and dark; exquisite now in a tailored green suit with a subtle shimmer of fox-furs that held a subtle perfume. Looking more closely, one could

The Hoskins are a One-Family USO

Saturday night is open house for service men at Dad and Ma Hoskins'. They spread out sliced turkey and chicken, hotbeds and cake, sweet cider and ice-cold beer—and let any service man who wants to, come and help himself.
Some townsfolk thought the fellows might get obstreperous or take advantage of the Hoskins' hospitality. But the men are quick to recognize that here's a real American home, where friendliness and moderation are just naturally observed.

Hollywood Gossip

By BOB THOMAS
HOLLYWOOD—Being a character actor is far insurance for Vincent Price.
"I like this acting business," he told me on the "Dragonwyck" set. "I'd like to spend my life being an actor. But I know very well that if I get typed in a certain characterization, I'll be through in no time."
The six-foot-four actor first gained notice on the stage as Prince Albert to Helen Hayes' "Victoria Regina" and then as the husband in "Angel Street," later made into the movie, "Gaslight."
"When Fox offered me a contract, I said I would sign only if they gave me their word that I would be given interesting roles," he related. "They thought I was off my nut, but agreed to it."
Later when Price refused to accept a role, the studio officials asked him for an explanation. "I don't find the role interesting and you gave me your word I wouldn't have to play anything uninteresting," he told them. Flabbergasted, the bigwigs gave up.

Tin Can Pick-up Proves Record Breaker in County

Yesterday's tin can pick-up goes to show that the people of this county are determined that there shall be no let down in the war effort until the Japanese are beaten. W. T. Corbett, chairman of the Salvage committee stated this morning "It was great. All records have been broken and we thought we were asking for a lot of cans when we asked for 300,000 but do you know I figure that we got 500,000. Half a million cans to tie on old Hirohito ought to make him rattle".

The big car which had been ordered in on the siding for the pick-up was filled at 3 o'clock and another car was cleaned up and shifted to the loading rack and the trucks began dumping their loads into it. Cans fairly poured in and one truck was sent to Ludlow where a big load was secured and placed in the car. Ludlow has been anxious to get rid of its cans where they would do the most good but the Kane Salvage Committee has never given much attention to can pick-ups and Ludlow operates under the Kane committee. Many of the cans at Ludlow had been gathered up two years ago but had lain round in storage since that time.

Cans are still pouring into the city and Chairman Corbett has been forced to secure space where they can be stored until another carload is secured. From all indications that will not be long. The co-operation of the State Hospital, the Warren General Hospital, hotels and other big users of canned goods was wonderful.

Collection was done as usual with volunteer trucks and workers and trucks were furnished by the Valentine Disposal Company, Warren Disposal Company, State Highway Department, Youngsville borough, Russell township and the State Hospital. The trucks and men were directed by E. T. Beck and men were furnished by the Pennsylvania Electric Company, Warren Water Company, Struthers Wells Company, Hammond Iron Works Company, G. L. F., County Commissioners and Capt. Brandenburg, of the Salvation Army.

The schools of the county made a fine collection and to them must go a lot of credit. Many of the pupils in the schools have established a sort of rivalry in picking up the cans and the competition is keen.

Chairman W. T. Corbett today extends thanks to all the people who aided in making this the most successful drive in the history of the Salvage drive for tin cans. He also gives credit to the housewives who processed their cans, cleaning and flattening them. The shipments from Warren have rated 99% perfect and all of this credit goes to the housewives.

Mr. Corbett urges that the saving of cans continue as he has been advised that for more than a year after Japan is defeated tin will be an essential and imports will be slow in coming into this country. Tin and paper are essentials in the war effort and both must be carefully saved if the folks back home do their part in the winning of the war.

Keen Interest Shown Here In Visit of "Bondwagon"

Local officials predict one of the biggest throngs in Warren history when the big KDKA "Bondwagon" bulging with radio stars and U. S. War Bonds, arrives here Saturday evening, June 2, for its big open air show and rally in behalf of the country's Seventh War Drive.

With KDKA's foremost passengers aboard the bond-selling "bus," the populace from neighboring towns for miles around is expected to be attracted here for the entertainment extravaganza scheduled for Beatty Field at 7 p. m.

However, W. E. Yeager, Warren County War Finance Committee chairman for the Seventh War Loan drive, stated today that citizens should come prepared to purchase bonds as well as enjoy the evening's extraordinary entertainment. Cash sales of bonds will prevail—no pledges.

The Warren stop-over marks the "Bondwagon's" first in a whirlwind tour of the state during the present drive. During the last three years, the "Bondwagon," in collaboration with the State War Finance Committee, has travelled over 3,000 miles to stage 29 bond rallies, resulting in the sale of $4,700,000 worth of bonds.

Although J. E. Baudino, general manager of KDKA, asserted this morning that the entire galaxy of radio toppers would not be announced until next week he did state positively that Bernie Armstrong would be aboard the "Bondwagon."

Armstrong, KDKA's celebrated organist and musical director, will accompany the sundry artists at the Hammond organ. Also the maestro of "Brunch With Bill" and the "New Duquesne Show" fame, will render an organ medley of popular tunes. Baudino said other members of the all-star cast will be announced tomorrow.

Next week a huge pavilion will be constructed on Beatty Field to accommodate the entertainers. Bond booths representing KDKA and the local banks will flank either side of the platform. Bonds purchased at all the booths will be accredited to Warren County.

Dear Judge

Golly, there are certainly an awful lot of dumb bunnies in the world—like a couple of girls at school. They are trying to lose weight, so all they bring for lunch are a couple of vitamin pills. They then sit around and gape at everyone else enjoying good victuals. When they get real hungry, they go down street and lop up a big gooey sundae. All they really need is some will power and some good bumping exercises to whittle down their legs and hips.

Have you been reading up on the style hints for the Junior Miss? Hats are definitely on the up-swing. There are off-the-face rollers, stiff sailors, hats worn back of the head, beanie with visors, and cloches. On a dress-up day the kids look funny with hats, white woolen socks and low-heeled shoes.

Also, I think it's about time those bright red smear lipsticks that make the kids look like juvenile delinquents were shelved for the new pink shades. The brighter the pink the better. Best of all, it goes just dandy with everything.

I read that the OPA and New York Board of Education are starting a campaign to round up school children in a drive to break the Black Market in consumer goods. Even the third grade kids are going to be taught skills in shopping. When the kids shop, they will jot down the items and prices they are asked to pay. They don't make any complaints to the store-keeper—they'll leave that to the Moms. Good idea, huh?

Bishop Gannon Confirms Two Classes Here

Bishop John Mark Gannon, of Erie, bishop of the Catholic Diocese of Erie, was in Warren on Tuesday and Wednesday of this week to administer the rite of confirmation in the two local Catholic parishes.

Children and adults numbering 122 were confirmed by the Bishop before a large audience in St. Joseph's church at 10:30 a. m. Wednesday. The children of St. Joseph's school and altar boys escorted the bishop and priests to and from the church and rectory in a procession.

The confirmation service closed with the Benediction of the Most Blessed Sacrament, given by Father M. E. Dailey, of Holy Redeemer parish.

Those who assisted at the service were Father Cyril Cooper, Titusville, and Father Edward Jacobs, of Tidouete, who acted as chaplains to the bishop; Father E. Latimer and Father J. M. Gannon, D. D., of Erie, Father M. E. Dailey, of Holy Redeemer, and Fathers of Arthur Leon and Alfred Bauer, of St. Joseph's.

Miss Lucille McLaughlin and Thomas Musante acted as general sponsors for the confirmation class.

At Holy Redeemer church at 7:30 p. m. Tuesday, 100 children and adults were confirmed by Bishop Gannon before a large gathering of relatives and friends. The service closed with the Benediction of the Most Blessed Sacrament by Father Raymond Dugan.

Those who assisted at the service were Father P. J. Tobin of Jamestown, N. Y., and Father Alfred Bauer of Warren who acted as chaplains to the Bishop; Father Raymond Dugan of Mt. Jewett; Father M. J. Macken of Clarendon; Father J. M. Gannon D. D., and Father E. Latimer of Erie; Father Arthur Leon, of Warren, and Father M. J. Dailey, pastor of Holy Redeemer.

Miss Eva Corbin and A. A. Albaugh acted as general sponsors to those being confirmed.

Meat Situation Grows Worse In This Area

Warren housewives are finding that the meat situation in this area is bad and steadily growing worse. The supply is just not great enough to go around and even if the women turn out early to get to the stores they find that the stock has all been sold out. The condition is not any better in surrounding towns and Jamestown, Kane, Ridgway and Erie are all suffering from a scarcity of meat.

Meat dealers state that their shipments are small. The packing houses aver that they are doing their best to care for their customers but that the meat just isn't to be had and they are apportioning it in the best manner possible. Cold cuts, pressed meats which were plentiful for several weeks are growing harder to buy and the cases where they are displayed are emptied in the matter of a few hours.

Beef is especially scarce and pork for the past two weeks has been almost an unknown quantity. Ham and bacon are practically out.

Meat men are making an effort to care for their patrons in the best manner they know how and regular customers naturally get first consideration. In nearly all markets meat is kept in the refrigerators and doled out in the most fair manner possible. On that score there has been little complaint about the city.

It is a peculiar thing but the meat shortage has affected the sales of rolls and buns by the bakeries that operate in Warren. Most of the men on the baking company trucks report that their sales have dropped off with the fall in the quantity of meats, wieners and hamburger available.

And from all indications the supply is not going to increase and will become gradually worse until next fall when there promises to be more pork available.

Chickens, too, are scarce and poultry is being sought by persons from the towns in the section who drive out in the country and purchase all live chickens that are available at top prices. This has also tended to make poultry even more scarce on the markets here.

Everybody reads the Times-Mirror.

How to Grow Watermelons In Small Home Gardens

Watermelons can be grown in the home garden, with hills as close together as three by three feet. Close spacing may reduce the size of the large growing varieties, but it usually increases the number of melons.

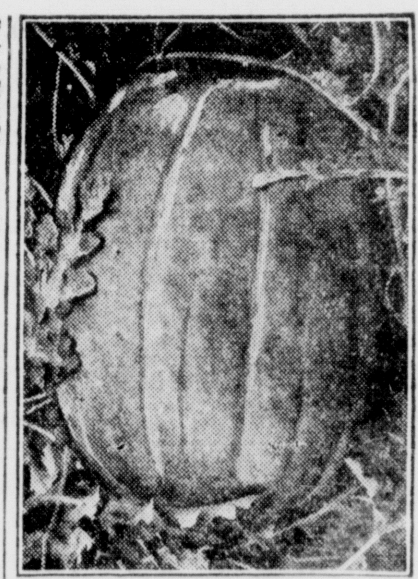

Favorite garden varieties are not the largest, however. Most popular is Stone Mountain, and other favorites are Kleckley's Improved, Leesburg, Greystone, Blackie, and Florida Favorite.

If your garden has grown watermelons during the past five years you should plant a wilt resistant variety. Of the above both Leesburg and Blackie are wilt resistant and both are very satisfactory.

Put about a pint of commercial plant food, will mixed with the soil, under each hill a week before planting, or use a scoopful of manure and half that amount of commercial fertilizer. Then plant 10 seed to a hill and thin to two plants. Sow as soon as danger of killing frost is past. Keep the weeds down until the vines cover the soil.

Are watermelons nutritious, as well as being tasty? Careful research proves the edible flesh of an average ripe watermelon contains in each pound:

137 Calories
1.81 Protein grams
.036 Calcium grams
.059 Phosphorus grams
.91 Fat grams

Stone Mountain Watermelon, Good for Home Gardens.

30.38 Carbohydrate grams
408 Units of Vitamin A
69 Units of Vitamin B
64 Units of Vitamin C
54 Units of Vitamin G

Children, and most adults, will joyously eat ten times as much watermelon as they might other vegetables containing more vitamins per ounce.

Teresa Marie Fino Presents Unusually Pleasing Recital

A large and enthusiastic audience was present last evening at the Woman's Club to hear Teresa Marie Fino give her first piano recital. Miss Fino presented each group with a charm and poise unusual in so young a student.

The Beuree in E Minor and Bach Invention in B Flat were played in the typical style of the classics, with definite rhythm and clear-cut phrasing. The outstanding work presented was the complete Sonata in C by Haydn, in which the fine sense of detail, delicacy of touch and apparent understanding of form were most satisfying to those familiar with the composer's music.

Schubert's Impromptu in A Flat and Minuetto e Trio in B Minor portrayed a precision of tone and a pleasing adaptability for quick change of mood. The smooth, melodious tone of the Nocturne in E Flat by Field and Au Matin by Godard, and the fluent technical demands of Spindler's Valse Aerienne brought the program to an interesting close.

Miss Fino was most ably assisted by Miss Melda Olsen, soprano. The rich quality of her voice and her keen interpretative sense made her two groups of songs most enjoyable. Her difficult accompaniments were very capably performed by Miss Ruth Ackert.

After the recital, a reception was given for the young musician by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank A. Fino, at their home, 224 Onondaga avenue.

With the near approach of Memorial Day our thoughts sort of turn back the days when we kids thought Memorial Day was one of the days of days. Early in the morning we hiked out of bed before dawn and hid away to the river bank on the South Side where under the spreading chestnut trees the village cannon stood, and by the way its still there. It was a field piece and from the stories told to us kids it did duty every where from Bull Run, Spotsylvania to Gettysburg. Anyway it was the biggest cannon we kids had ever seen. So when the salute was fired we were there. Phillip Begler and Mike Regner were the official gunners and they handled the piece like they were battling Johnny Rebs. A charge was put in, then bits of sod and earth and when the gun let go with a wham, it rattled windows over town and caused many an honest citizen to think the war was on again. Can't remember just how many rounds were fired, but it seemed quite a lot and well satisfied with the cannoning we hustled home for breakfast, one big event of the day under control.

And the parade! Now there was really something. Company I resplendent in blue uniforms with Capt. Fred Windsor marching and Lew Clark stepping high and the rifles gleam in the sunshine. Boy, that was great. The veterans of the Civil War were in numbers then and turned out at least 200 strong in their uniforms and campaign hats. It was a goodly crew and they marched proud of their record on the battlefield. Col. David Gardner, of Clarendon was always Marshal of the Day and as the parade of a prancing horse he was an imposing figure. D. I. Ball, Captain Alexander, Harry Smith, Billy Wilbur, Ross Kerr and dozens of others were always in line. The Woman's Relief Corps, Ladies of the G. A. R. school children and others marched and at the cemetery D. I. Ball usually presided at the exercises and Hon. Charles Stone or Hon. C. C. Thompson usually delivered the address of the day while somebody else read Lincoln's address at Gettysburg and the silver cornet band with Thad Reig directing played some stirring tunes. On the way to the cemetery they played dirges but on the way back they cut loose with "Johnny Comes Marching Home Again" and similar airs. And at the G. A. R. lot ceremonies were held over the graves of the unknown veteran and volleys were fired. And what a scramble there was for a cartridge shell. If a kid got one his day was complete.

And how the folks turned out and walked to the cemetery all carrying baskets and bouquets of flowers. What a day it was and what hundreds of people went to the city of the dead.

Somewhat as we look back Memorial Day was an occasion when everyone paid homage to the heroes.

Three wars have been fought since then. Numbers of men who have died in the service of their country have been laid to rest; the old boys of the Grand Army of the Republic have all gone; autos are provided for the veterans of the Spanish American War who are growing old and bent; men of World War One sleep with their comrades of years ago and doesn't it seem that this year when thousands of men are dying in the far off Pacific that Memorial Day should be just a little more sacred than ever before?

The meat situation in Warren is just plain bad and without signs of early improvement. Housewives are at their wits end to locate a bit of meat for the hungry hounds who surround their tables. Sort of causes us to wonder at this buying of steers. Warren and Bradford folk have 350 steers now grazing to provide meat for next winter. Suppose that thing is general over the United States just how much meat do you suppose has disappeared off the market? . . . Employees of the local post-office are now hoping that the approval has been indicated it is not a sure thing and a letter to our senators might help the post-office boys. . . . Looking forward to Christmas the postoffice department has ruled that gifts must be sent between September 15 and October 15. Work of getting letters to the Pacific will be multiplied this year. . . . The 28th Division of which the 112th Regiment is a part is a portion of the famous Fighting First Army which will soon be on its way to the battle with the Japs. Company I, of this city is a part of the 112th Regiment. Of course, most of the boys who left Warren with Company I are now officers with other outfits but there are a few Warren boys left in the company and they will get a 30 days furlough on their way to the Pacific area to be spent in their old home town.

One of the local merchants tells an interesting story of a soldier who is home from the wars. With his Dad the soldier went into the local store and bought himself a complete new outfit and when he had all been fitted up he looked at the merchant and said "Fix Dad up, too, with a new outfit".

Richard Gatling, inventor of the Gatling machine gun, believed that his invention would make wars more humane.

Without Painful Backache

Many sufferers relieve nagging backache quickly, once they discover that the real cause of their trouble may be bad kidneys. The kidneys are Nature's chief way of taking the excess acids and waste out of the blood. They help most people pass about 9 pints a day.

When disorder of kidney function permits poisons to remain in your blood, they may cause nagging backache, rheumatic pains, leg pains, loss of pep and energy, getting up at night, swelling, puffiness under the eyes, headaches and dizziness. Frequent or scanty passages with smarting and burning sometimes show there is something wrong with your kidneys or bladder.

Don't wait! Ask your druggist for Doan's Pills, used successfully by millions for over 40 years. They give happy relief and will help the 15 miles of kidney tubes get out poisonous waste from your blood. Get Doan's Pills.

N. Y. All-Stars Face Forge At Hospital Tonight; Stiff Battle Expected On Sunday

Baseball makes its second appearance tonight, its first with veteran baseballers Joe Gardner, Manager Emmy Morrison's National Forge cohorts go to it again this evening, this time against a strong selection of the top-notch baseball players from the southwestern part of our neighboring New York state.

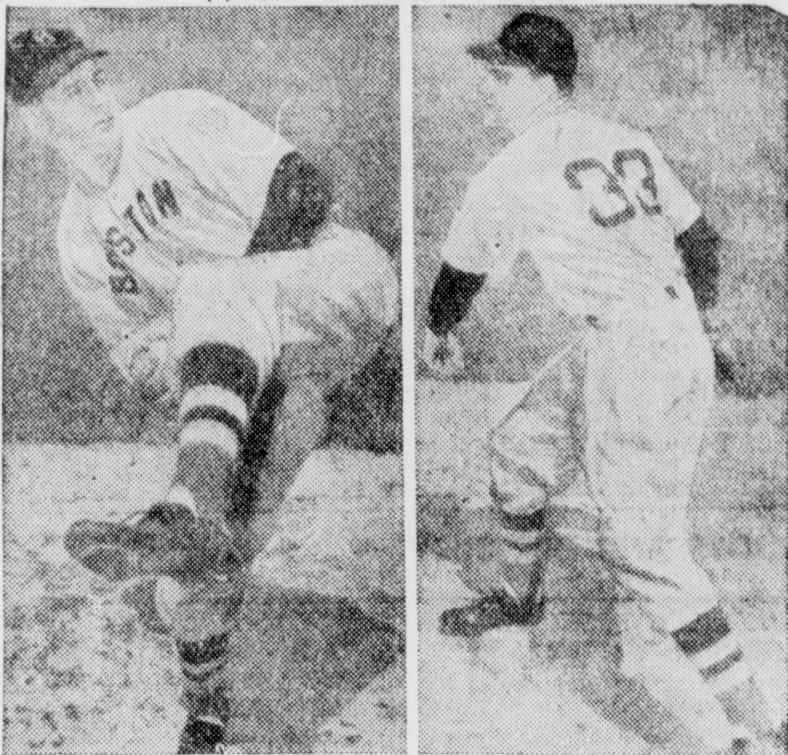

This evening's contest is scheduled for six o'clock at the State hospital diamond, with Dick Erce and Rabbit Swanson making the decisions.

"Ginny" Freeborough will start tonight for the Forgers tonight, having yet to be seen in competitive action. Freeborough served as a reliever last season, but is getting a chance to display his wares as an opener for the first time this season.

Several of the Forge newcomers may see action tonight, including Moniac, Cedone, Imbagnolo, and Wright. Mike Solock and Fred Aumer, both members of last year's crew, may also see action tonight.

Manager Morrison said last night that he would try to insert some of the new players tonight, but he also said he was not being over-optimistic over this evening's encounter. Nagle has a wide reputation as an expert ball manager and the crew he puts on the

With Either Hand

Few, if any, pitchers broke into majors as auspiciously as young Dave Ferriss. Remarkable six-foot two-inch, 200-pound Army Air Forces dischargee turned in three shutouts, yielded only two runs in 36 innings, winning first four starts for Boston Red Sox. While he pitches right-handed, he has played first base left-handed and is a left-hand batter used as pinch-hitter.

Sale of Cooper To Boston Spurs Hopes of Other NL Entries; Bums Lose Fourth

By JACK HAND

Sale of Mort Cooper to Boston appears to have scrambled the National League flag race today with strong support going to the Giants, Pirates and Cubs and a couple of stray votes to the newly rich Braves.

Although the big time had a full calendar of eight games yesterday, the big deal between the world champion St. Louis Cardinals and Boston overshadowed the scores.

Not that the "experts" are counting out the Red Birds, for Billy Southworth still has a complete holdover infield and has added a capable pitcher in Charley (Red) Barrett. Although no Cooper off his past record, Barrett has been a dependable starter for Bob Coleman in the Hub.

But the sudden loss of a No. 1 man like Cooper is bound to give added hope to the front-running Giants and the Chicago and Pittsburgh entries. Ever since the Cards lost Stan Musial the rest of the league has figured the champs were dropping back toward the field and the departure of Cooper made them more certain.

Van Mungo turned in an inspired job for New York's Giants in Cincinnati last night, going all the way without any relief help from Ace Adams for the first time in seven starts as he blanked the Reds, 2-0, with three hits and striking out 10. The Giants got to Bucky Walters for nine blows including three by Manager Mel Ott who boosted his average to .408.

Chicago also benefitted by a fine pitching job from the veteran Claude Passeau, who held the Phillies in check while the Bruins plastered Charley Schanz, 5-3, for his sixth straight setback. The alert Cubs worked the old hidden ball trick on the veteran Jimmy Fox to add to the cellarites' embarrassment.

Pittsburgh had to go 13 rounds with Boston before grabbing a 9-8 edge on a single by Rookie Al Gionfriddo. After the Braves spurted with five in the ninth to tie it up, Frankie Frisch called on his ace, Rip Sewell, to hold the fort.

St. Louis popped up with a mound "find" in Rookie Jack Creel, making his first starting appearance in a 11-1 romp past Brooklyn for the Dodgers' fourth straight setback. Homers by Whitey Kurowski and Ray Sanders helped Creel coast home.

Dave Ferriss continued to be the rave of the American League as the Boston Red Sox army discharge rolled up his fifth successive triumph by beating St. Louis, 4-1. Ferriss has allowed three runs and 30 hits in 45 innings.

Floyd Bevens hurled the New York Yankees to a 4-3 edge over the first-place Chicago White Sox, clubbing Joe Haynes for five runs in the opening inning. Hal Newhouse struck out 11 Athletics as Detroit smashed out an impressive 7-1 score against Jesse Flores.

Cleveland continued to move upward by nosing out Washington, 3-2, in a night contest. It was Allie Reynolds' fourth successive success and five out of six for the Indians.

First Methodists Down Sylvania

The second battle of the 1945 YMCA-Church moshball league got under way last night, with the First Methodists copping a thrilling 16-15 win over Sylvania.

With Rich Cheek doing the pitching for the Methodists, Mush Johnson's crew got off to an early start and held control practically throughout the entire game. Al Babcock did the receiving for the Methodists.

Hitting honors of the night went to Highhouse, Methodist first baseman, who connected with a home run. Hitting was good in the encounter last night, but numerous errors caused the defenses of both teams to weaken.

The battery for the losing Sylvania was Dick Schumacher doing the mound work and Steve Massa receiving.

Tomorrow night, the Baptists and Grace Methodists meet their first action at six o'clock at Beaty Field.

Behind the Lines

Chuck McLean, former High School star football and basketball performer and baseball student of Rabbit Swanson, writes from somewhere in Austria, telling of some of his experiences there and expressing his gratitude to Rabbit for the baseball tutoring which he received from him. Almost every sports fan in Warren will remember McLean, not only in the baseball field, but especially for his outstanding work in high school athletics. McLean played end under J. B. Leidig and, if you will recall, was nick-named "Hams" for his expert pass-snagging ability. Under Heinie Kolpen, McLean was a member of the Section Two, District Ten, basketball champions in 1943-44. He played two years previous to that on the varsity squad.

Ace Cara

Freckled Red Schoendienst of the St. Louis Cardinals is the most talented and colorful new major league player. Starting in left field, the 22-year-old product of Germantown, Ill., who could double for Huckleberry Finn, filled in highly acceptably at shortstop when Slat's Marion twisted his ankle before going out himself with a dislocated shoulder.

The Erie Sailors in the PONY League are having a tough time, but their consistency in losing cannot be blamed on their pitching staff. Last night against the Bradford nine, Bradford was held to but two hits, but they capitalized on walks and misplays to capture a 7-2 decision. While on the PONY subject, Jamestown's Falcons will be in first place within the next two weeks if they keep up the pace. Manager Jim Levey's youngsters took a 4-3 decision last night in a ten-inning battle with Olean.

Bobby Hammerbeck, member of last season's championship basketball crew under Joe Massa who was inducted into service before completion of the season, has been hospitalized with pneumonia. Ted Payseur has been named to succeed R. L. "Tug" Wilson as athletic director at Northwestern University. Zaiton Stamus, assistant football and varsity baseball coach at Philipsburg High School, has resigned to coach baseball at the Williamsport school and to assist in football. Coach Bob Higgins plans to begin daily football drills at Penn State early in July. Tony Cuccinello, 36 years old, is battling 356, which is a pleasant surprise to the surging White Sox. Wisconsin plays Great Lakes, Marquette, Purdue,

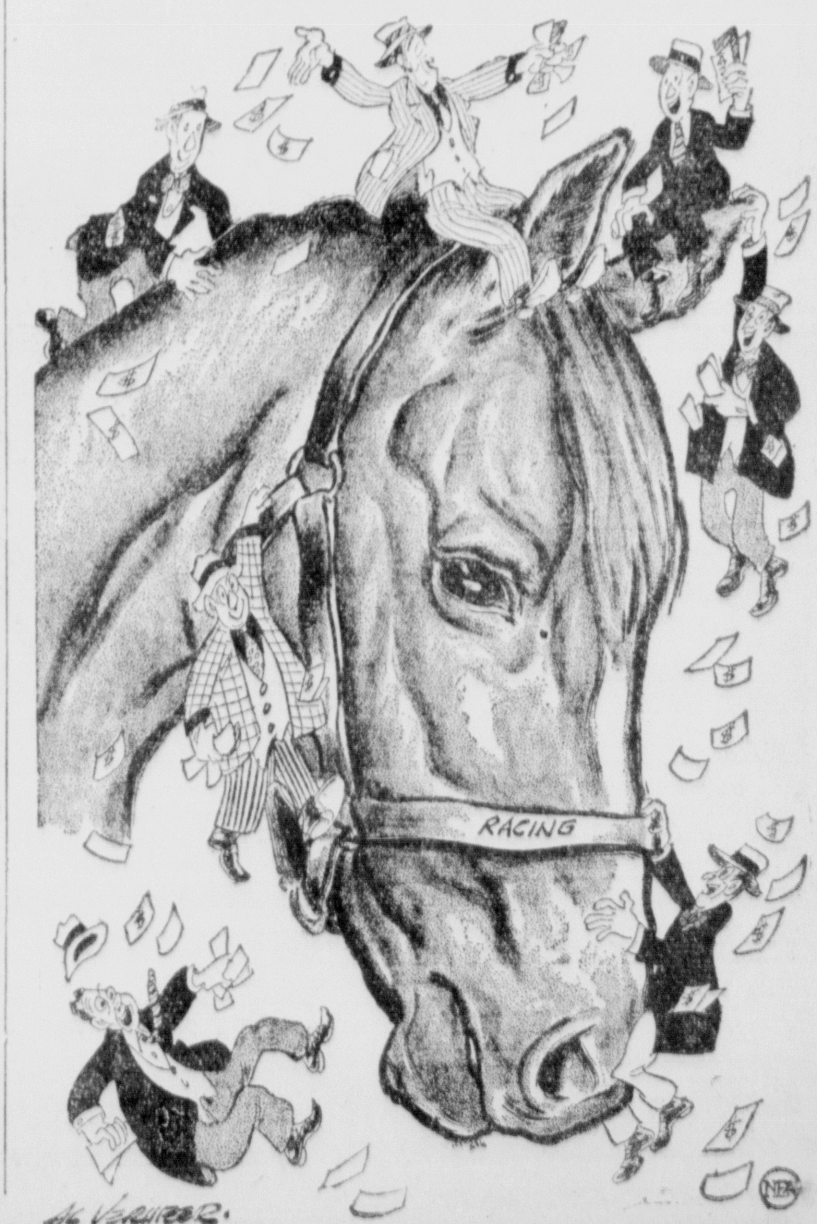

Ohio State, Illinois, Iowa, Northwestern, Iowa Pre-Flight, and Minnesota in football this fall.

If things go from bad to worse, the National League can make up a pretty fair club from among its managers, according to Martin Vogel, baseball statistician with Al Munro Elias. He would select Freddie Fitzsimmons of the Phils as pitcher and complete the team like this: Bob Coleman, Braves, catcher; Charley Grimm, Cubs, first base; Frankie Frisch, Pirates, second base; Leo Durocher, Dodgers, shortstop; Bill McKechnie, Reds, third base; Bill Southworth, Cards, and Mel Ott, Giants, outfielders. To round out the club Vogel would borrow Chuck Klein, Phillie coach, for his third outfielder.

THINGS ARE easily bought and sold through classified ads.

pushed up highway five beyond Balet toward the mouth of the vital Cagayan valley at Santa Fe village. Planes dropped 300 tons of bombs in support of the drive.

Previous heavy enemy resistance mysteriously melted as Maj. Gen. Charles L. Mullin's tropic lightning division took high ground near Santa Fe against almost no opposition while other elements drove on the town itself. The 27th Regiment in a coordinated push girded for a fight against 25 cave emplacements east of highway five but breathed fervent thanks on discovering all were abandoned.

In the watershed area northeast of Manila, a tremendous fire bomb strike enabled the 35th Division to move through acres of Japanese hillside positions. Planes dropped jelled gasoline incendiaries. Tanks threw flames. A medieval-type catapult hurled cans and barrels of jelled gasoline over the ridges.

Counterattacks are continuing in other parts of the front lines but are being thrown back.

Just west of Conical hill key-point on the four-mile east-west defense line, Maj. Gen. James L. Bradley's 96th Infantry Division pounded down one counterattack in which the 382nd regiment killed 150 enemy troops.

Near the center of the line the Statue of Liberty (77th) Division is fighting to capture the range of hills guarding the fortress city. On the east coast, Maj. Gen. Archibald V. Arnold's Seventh Division—veterans of snowy Attu and steaming Leyte—captured positions and hills 1,200 yards south of Yonabaru, enlarging the area the division dominates on its drive south and west.

84th Birthday Well Observed By Esteemed Swedish Resident

John Ahlgren, one of the best known and esteemed Swedish residents of the city yesterday celebrated his 84th birthday anniversary and last evening he was honored by members and friends at the Calvary Baptist church. Following the prayer service at the church way was made to the social rooms where with the Rev. Westlund presiding, an informal celebration of the happy event was made.

Congratulations were extended to Mr. Ahlgren, who is hale and hearty and works every day repairing shoes at his home. Old Swedish hymns dear to his heart were sung and a favorite musical was sung as a solo by Ellen Swanson.

The Rev. Westlund spoke in a most pleasing manner and in behalf of friends presented Mr. Ahlgren with a purse of money.

Mr. Ahlgren was born in the most northern province of Sweden, really in the Land of the Midnight Sun in 1861. In 1887 he came to Warren and went to work for the Boston Shoe Store conducted by Dave Swanson in the store room now occupied by Paul Coc. Later he established his own business in the Hulberg block and later he moved to the East Side where he was busy for a number of years and he still carries on at his home.

He is the only living charter member of the Calvary Baptist church which was formed in 1890.

OUR LONG

ROAD TO

JAPAN

... must be paved with

BONDS

We've still got a tremendous job to do. A job that will take lots of time, lots of courage, lots of money. We've got to crush Japan. Only then will our fighting men come home for keeps! You can speed this victory, by plunking down every spare dollar for extra bonds during the 7th War Loan Drive!

What's Needed: 14 billion dollars is the total goal of the 7th War Loan. 7 billions—the largest quota ever for individual investors—must come from you and you and you.

Why So Much? Before we can begin the fight to end the war, millions of men and crushing tonnages of battle equipment must be shipped half-way around the world. Our armies must be freshly outfitted. More B-29s are needed, more jet-propelled fighters, more ships, more tanks and half-tracks, more of everything is needed.

Your money buys these weapons. Pour it out so our fighting men can pour it on. Buy Extra Bonds!
